Professional Summary

Have built multiple web apps using JavaScript, HTML and CSS. Two are currently live, they are a portfolio site and an RSVP site, both created with React and hand coded CSS.

Very passionate about programming and learning. Detail oriented with excellent organizational skills. Fast learner and enjoys being creative. Looking to join a team to grow and learn.

Projects

Lake Tahoe website, made with HTML, CSS and JavaScript:

- Website that advertised Lake Tahoe, created after learning CSS basics.
- Used JavaScript to make a random quote function and for animations.

Landing page with CSS and HTML:

- This was a website built in CSS and HTML to learn how to properly use CSS for layouts.
- Project was also an introduction to responsive design and using a mobile first approach.
- Learned flexbox and CSS animations.

Flashcard web app with JavaScript, Node.js, HTML, CSS:

- Had a basic login only requiring a name
- Had answer, hint and random card options
- App used cookies to keep a user logged in

User profile web app with Node, Express and MongoDB:

- Could log in and log out, navigating pages while staying logged in.
- Had basic user information stored in MongoDB via Express.
- Used bcrypt to protect passwords
- Had error handling for 404 and server errors

Scoreboard with React:

- Had a timer.
- Kept track of players with highest score.
- You could add/delete players.
- Increment player score or decrement player score.
- Kept track of total amount of players.
- Kept track of overall score of game.

Images app with JavaScript, AJAX, HTML, CSS:

- User could select from a menu a breed of dog and images of the dog would be retrieved via AJAX.
- There was a custom search feature using JavaScript and AJAX to search a specific breed of dog.

RSVP app made with React and CSS:

- User can add guests
- User can edit and remove guest
- User can confirm guest
- User can hide all guest who have not confirmed
- There is a phantom li element that appears as the user types and is removed on submit
